PRF CIVIC ASSOCIATION MEETING, JUNE 20, 2017

Present: Skip Wickland, Jerome Bouie, Ed Mayers, John Buschmann, Al Eichorn, Susan Scheib, and Bert Cameron

Topics included Springfield Township plans and progress, especially those related to PRF; a financial report for the Civic Association; efforts to beautify PRF with flowers and other plantings; PRF upcoming events and planning and/or proposals for them; Northwest schools plan for the disposal of Welch elementary school; pool events, plans and progress; spring, summer and fall sports teams; changes and ideas for the Clifford George field; Hamilton county health inspections at the field and pool; and coordination with local churches, realtors and other players that may work with the Association to enhance the Farms and its residents.

Skip reported on Township plans for developing an area south of Galbraith and other economic development ideas, a new website, community events planned for the summer, an art camp, plans for a renewal fire levy, a paramedic grant to work with folks who have chronic medical conditions, and increased staffing for police to bring it up to pre-recession levels. Other discussions about the Township centered on recent paving, assistance with Clifford George field (flag, sprinkler and netting) and John's ability to get the street paving crew to make some field access improvements and to minimize disruptions to participants in spring games as the paving occurred.

Ed's comprehensive financial report indicated bills paid, money available for future expenses, and a small improvement in financial health. The number of families (95) who belong to the Association remains at a rather steady low point, with only a slight improvement from the bottom. Discussion about how to get new residents interested in the Association centered on efforts to get realtors to provide new residents with information about the Association and its efforts to make PRF a better place to live.

A discussion about how to beautify the Farms with plantings centered on how to make such efforts sustainable. One thought centered on creation of a garden club, whose members might work on the gardens and keep them watered. Other ideas involved finding expert advice about how to plant flowers that require minimal maintenance, especially perennials.

Al told the group about plans to find senior residents in need of outside/inside aid and said that up to this time, no requests had been made to the Association. This will become an ongoing effort with plans to involve local churches and any other group willing to assist. One such group comes for Xavier High school where students are seeking community service projects. Northwest High school also has similar efforts. Connecting the need to the volunteer remains elusive, but once such a connection becomes solid, the process should become routine.

The Association plans for future events include the July 4th parade, a garage sale (coordinated with others along route 127), a possible Trunk or Treat event in October or a costume exchange, the candle lighting in December (lumen aria) or/and Santa home visits as well as bringing food and toys to those in need.

Spring athletics got off to slow start with a rainy April, but picked up steam after the monsoons passed with 14 teams and about 160 players using Clifford George field. The Association sold 98 to the Red's Kids Glove game and it brought over $900 from the Reds to the Association. A new soccer commissioner has been chosen and so far 4 lollipop teams and 5 or 6 teams with older players will kick a soccer ball at George this fall. Eight teens man the concession at the field. John also talked about the possibility of relocating playground equipment from Welch to Clifford George field and has a triangular area where it will be located in mind. He envisions younger siblings and others using the equipment during games.

Skip also reported on Welch elementary, saying the District has received no bids for the school and plans to level the building next year, plant grass in its place and put the property up for sale to a realty company or other developer. All hope that any development enhances the Farms.

Both John and Susan told about passing County health inspections, but getting the bad news that someone would need to attend a two day class on food safety and take a test after the class. It would also cost $150 for the privilege of attending this class, required because both venues heat food—hot dogs at the field and cheese sticks at the pool. Waiver?? Not likely.

PRF ATHLETICS

The baseball and softball season is over for this year. There were 14 teams and over 140 players playing baseball, softball and Tball this season. Now we have put away the uniforms and the equipment and look forward to another great season next year. Our thanks to commissioner Matt Heller for all the attentiveness he has given to the baseball program and for running a great operation again this year. Matt is a fine example of one who grew up in PRF, played the game here for years, coached for years, and now runs the program. His efforts helped PRF teams do a terrific job on the field. Our thanks to all the coaches and players who represented PRF this spring. Coaches and players represented the PRF community very well in all the games we played.

Soccer registration for the fall season has begun. Commissioner Derek Sheaffer advises that teams are forming. SAY Coaches are assigned. We expect to have four SAY teams in the Fairfield league. At this point we plan to field the following teams:

Girls Passers—coached by Jason Katz

Boys Wings—coached by Scott Questa

Boys Strikers—coached by Stephen Knox

Boys Kickers—coached by Derek Sheaffer

We will also be fielding several Lollipop teams with coaches TBD. This is for girls and boys born in years 2011–2013. There are still a few openings to play. Practices will be starting the first or second week of August for this older teams. Games will start in September. Anyone interested in playing soccer can contact Derek at dwsheaffer@fuse.net. If you are interested in refereeing soccer, you can contact Derek, also.

John Buschmann, PRFCA Athletics Director

SENIOR MOMENTS

A reminder about the senior assistance day set up for October 14, 2017. Four area churches will have small groups available to help our seniors with yard work, small jobs around the house, moving seasonal items or to be helpful in whatever way they can.

We will need to know ahead of time who needs help – please let me, Al Eichorn, 513-674-7144 know if you would like to be on the list. One person has signed up so far.

FYI to the neighborhood: Want to let you know ahead of time that with Welch School closing, all meetings will be held at John Wesley UMC on Kemper Road -- third Tuesday of month at 6:45 PM. Open neighborhood meetings are in January, April and September.

Al Eichorn, 513-674-7144 or aeichorn@cinci.rr.com PRFCA Senior Activities Director

Susan reported that pool membership stands at 72 families, with about 60% coming from the Farms and 40% from outside the area. She also said the pool parties have increased, with members paying $150 and nonmembers $250 plus both paying an additional $5.00 for guests.

Plans for better signage for Civic Association events are afoot, with yard sign sized, reusable boards at PRF entry points and other places to advertise each event. Other thoughts about event planning centered on making the calendar of events more visible and tightening up planning for these programs. In addition, creating a list of tradesmen used and recommended by local residents might become part of PRF’s service to PRF folk.

Bert Cameron, PRFCA Secretary
